Dear Sir,

Peter Brooky of Excelsior Developments Ltd built our house for us and we are thrilled with the end result. He is very good to work with and has a very good eye for detail. Nothing was too much trouble. His organization skills are excellent and the contractors he works with really appreciated this. Peter is an excellent communicator and supplied photographs of the different stages of the house. He always took the time to explain each stage of the building which kept us completely informed all the time. Peter ran a very tidy building site and he always got extra quotes for us so we had the best price. His finishing work is of a very high standard and it shows in the finish of our beautiful home.

We have no hesitation in recommending Peter to other people as we have had a very happy building experience.

Sincerely,

RAY AND TRISH MARX
